

“And the cock crowed...” A Lenten Preaching Series

Peter was a faithful disciple of Christ. He even loaned Jesus his boat, proving how close their relationship was. And yet even this most faithful of disciples denied Christ at a critical moment. His denial is attested to in each of the four Gospels.

Our Lenten preaching series will be offered at the Wednesday night service and will include supplementary conversation with our guest preachers over a light soup supper in McKissick Refectory following the service. We invite you to come hear from four different noted preachers about denials of Christ.
