Christ Church Episcopal + Greenville, SC

WELCOME

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, we welcome you to Christ Church Episcopal.

Known as the “Parish in the Heart of the City,” Christ Church is blessed by the beauty of its physical surroundings, which have been preserved and expanded by the energy and vision of faithful stewards, both past and present. For more than two centuries, we have been gathering to worship God and demonstrate our faith in our daily lives. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we are inspired to be a joyful community sharing life in Jesus Christ.

We hope you will experience God’s blessings during this service as we have been blessed by your presence.

The Collect for the Nativity of Our Lord

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you make us glad by the yearly festival of the birth of your only Son Jesus Christ: Grant that we, who joyfully receive him as our Redeemer, may with sure confidence behold him when he comes to be our Judge; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The congregation is seated.

The Legend of the Friendly Beasts

Mary and Joseph Journey to Bethlehem

Luke 2:1-7

*O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
the silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
the everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.*

An Angel Speaks to the Shepherds

Luke 2:8-12

*The first Nowell the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
in fields as they lay, keeping their sheep,
on a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
born is the King of Israel.*

*They looked up and saw a star shining in the east beyond them far,
and to the earth it gave great light,
and so it continued both day and night.
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
born is the King of Israel.*

A Multitude of Angels Appears

Luke 2:13-16

*Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night,
And the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.
Gloria in excelsis Deo. Gloria in excelsis Deo.*

*Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
Come, adore on bended knee Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo. Gloria in excelsis Deo.*

*Away in a manger,
no crib for a bed,
the little Lord Jesus
laid down his sweet head;
the stars in the sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus
asleep on the hay.*

The Friendly Beasts

*Jesus our brother, kind and good, was humbly born in a stable rude,
And the friendly beasts around him stood, Jesus our brother, kind and good.*

*“I,” said the donkey, shaggy and brown, “I carried his mother uphill and down.
I carried his mother to Bethlehem town. I,” said the donkey shaggy and brown.*

*“I,” said the cow, all white and red, “I gave him my manger for his bed.
I gave him my hay to pillow his head. I,” said the cow all white and red.*

*“I,” said the sheep with curly horn, “I gave him my wool for his blanket warm.
He wore my coat on Christmas morn. I,” said the sheep with curly horn.*

*“I,” said the dove from rafters high, “I cooed him to sleep, so he should not cry.
We cooed him to sleep, my mate and I. I,” said the dove from rafters high.*

*“I,” said the camel bumpy and brown, “I carried the Three Wise Kings around.
I carried them through the desert and town. I,” said the camel bumpy and brown.*

(WRITTEN BY LIBBY SIGMON FOR THE 2023 PAGEANT)

*“I,” said the eagle, king of the sky, “I brought him food so he would not cry.
I brought him food all through the night. I,” said the eagle, king of the sky.*

(WRITTEN BY JAMES ANTHONY FOR THE 2024 PAGEANT)

Thus every beast by some good spell, in the stable dark was glad to tell of the gift he gave Emmanuel, the gift he gave Emmanuel.

The Conclusion

*Go tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and everywhere;
Go tell it on the mountain,
that Jesus Christ is born!*

The congregation stands for the creed.

The Children's Creed

I believe in God above.
I believe in Jesus' love.
I believe the Spirit, too,
Comes to teach me what to do. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Let us pray for God's Church, for Christ Church, for all bishops, priests, and ministers.

Let us pray for our Christ Church family.

Let us pray for our country, our state and our city of Greenville. Let us pray for all who lead us: Mr. Trump, our President; Mr. McMaster, our Governor; Mr. White, our Mayor; and for all leaders in the world.

Let us pray for the earth, that we may learn to take care of God's gifts to us.

Let us pray for those people who are sick or in trouble, both here at home and in the world.

Let us pray for those who have died.

Let us thank God for the many blessings of our lives.

God, you know what we need before we can ask for it. Help us to understand that we may not get what we ask for, but that you always give us what we truly need.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The people greet each other in the name of the Lord. The children will now return to their seats.

Following the offertory, the congregation stands and joins in singing as the gifts are presented at the altar.

The Presentation Hymn | The First Nowell

NOEL

Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord;
That hath made heaven and earth of nought, and with his blood our life hath bought.
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus et Benedictus

Robert J. Powell

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est._____

In observance of the joyful nature of this evening's liturgy, the congregation remains standing throughout the Eucharistic Prayer.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Cantor Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Invitation to the Table

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The congregation is seated following the Invitation to the Table.

The Ministration of Holy Communion

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please approach the communion ministers at the direction of the ushers. To receive the bread, place one hand over the other, palms facing upward. The wine which follows may be received either by drinking from the cup as it is extended to you, or by retaining the wafer and dipping it lightly into the cup. You are also welcome to receive the bread only. Should you desire to receive a blessing rather than Holy Communion, please cross your arms over your chest to indicate this to the priest. Gluten-free wafers are available to those who need them, and are kept and administered separately from the other wafers.

The Communion Music

O Holy Night

Adolphe Adam

Katherine Trask, soprano

The congregation kneels for the Post Communion Prayer and Blessing.

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God, who sent his angels to proclaim the glad news of the Savior's birth, fill you with joy, and make you heralds of the Gospel.
And the blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.
